CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1. Plaintiff Radio & TV Equipment, Inc., on behalf of itself and all others similarly-situated, for its Complaint against all Defendants named herein, demands trial by jury of all claims properly triable thereby, and complains and alleges as follows.

NATURE OF THE CASE

2. This case arises out of a conspiracy extending from at least 1998 through the present (“the Class Period”), among Defendants and their co-conspirators, with the purpose and effect of fixing, raising, and maintaining prices for televisions and computer monitors containing cathode-ray tubes (“CRT Products”) sold directly to Plaintiffs and other direct purchasers throughout the United States.

3. Defendants and their co-conspirators have formed an international cartel to illegally restrict competition in the market for CRT Products, targeting and severely burdening consumers throughout the United States. During the Class Period, the conspiracy has affected billions of dollars of commerce for products commonly found in households and businesses throughout the United States. The conspiracy has included communications and meetings in which Defendants agreed to eliminate competition and fix the prices for CRT Products.

4. Plaintiff brings this class action for price-fixing and other anticompetitive conduct, as alleged in this Complaint, in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and Sections 4 and 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 15 and 26, on behalf of all persons who purchased CRT Products directly from Defendants or their Co-Conspirators, predecessors, agents, subsidiaries or affiliates in the United States from 1998 through the present.

5. During the relevant period, Defendants and their Co-Conspirators manufactured, produced or sold CRT Products, and entered into and implemented a continuing combination and conspiracy to allocate the CRT Product market and fix, raise, maintain or stabilize prices for CRT Products sold in the United States. Defendants' anticompetitive conduct caused CRT Product prices to Plaintiff and other members of the Class to be higher than they otherwise would have been in the absence of the alleged misconduct, and Plaintiff and the other members of the Class have suffered antitrust injury to their business or property as a result.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. Plaintiff brings this action pursuant to Sections 4 and 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 15 and 26, to recover treble damages and the costs of this suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees, for injuries sustained by Plaintiff and the Class members as a result of Defendants' violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1.

7. Jurisdiction exists pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1337, and Sections 4 and 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 15(a) and 26.

8. Venue exists in this Judicial District pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 15(a) and 22 and 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c) and (d) because during the Class Period, one or more Defendants resided, transacted business, were found, or had agents in this District, and because a substantial part of the events giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred, and a substantial portion of the affected interstate trade and commerce described below has been carried out, in this District.

CO-CONSPIRATORS

32. Various individuals, partnerships, corporations and associations not named as Defendants in this Complaint (the "Co-Conspirators") have participated as Co-Conspirators in the violations of the federal antitrust laws alleged in this Complaint, and have performed acts and made statements in furtherance thereof.

TRADE AND COMMERCE

33. The trade and commerce relevant to this action are the purchase and sale of CRT Products in the United States.

34. During the Class Period, Plaintiff and members of the Class throughout the United States purchased CRT Products directly from Defendants or their Co-Conspirators.

35. Defendants and their Co-Conspirators are located in various states throughout the United States.

36. During the Class Period, Defendants sold substantial amounts of CRT Products to Plaintiff and members of the Class across state lines in a continuous and uninterrupted flow of interstate commerce. Defendants and their Co-Conspirators received millions of dollars from such interstate trade and commerce.

37. The activities of Defendants and their Co-Conspirators that are the subject of this Complaint were within the flow of, and substantially affected, interstate trade and commerce.

38. Among other unreasonable restraints on interstate trade and commerce, Defendants' combination and conspiracy artificially raised the price of CRT Products, and deprived Plaintiff and other members of the Class of the benefits of free and open interstate competition in the market for CRT Products.

39. Cathode-ray tube technology has been around for nearly 75 years. To create an image with a cathode ray tube, a filament at the back narrow end of a vacuum tube is heated, which causes electrons to be emitted. A positively charged anode pulls the electrons through the thin tube. Wire coils along the tube create electromagnetic fields; by varying the charge along the field, electrons are steered out of the narrow part of the tube and then to the screen, where they excite phosphors to create the image.

40. The new slim-tube TVs introduced in 2004 and 2005 use a modified version of tube technology to reduce depth. To make the tubes shallower, new technologies were needed to increase the maximum deflection angle of the electrons from the standard 110 degrees to 125 degrees, allowing them to reach the farthest corners of the screen.

41. Many people in the television industry acknowledge that the standard-definition image quality produced by a picture tube remains superior to the newer flat panels. Unlike LCD televisions, tube sets do not suffer from image lag, the smearing of rapidly moving images on the screen. Nor are they prone to image burn-in, as has plagued some plasma screens.

42. At the beginning of the Class Period, cathode-ray tubes were the dominant display technology worldwide. For example, in 1997, 99.3% of all computer monitors sold worldwide contained cathode-ray tubes. In 2005, approximately 47 million cathode-ray tube monitors were sold worldwide, and approximately 20.3% of these were sold in the United States.

43. For the period 1998-2002, over 25 million cathode-ray tube TVs were sold each year in the United States, generating revenues of over $7 billion per year. By 2007, annual unit sales had decreased to 15 million. Over the class period, cathode-ray tube TV revenues were over $50 billion in the United States.

44. Defendants, however, began to develop new, slimmer versions of the technology, as well as high-definition displays, which successfully compete with newer, more expensive flat panel technology, LCD and plasma.

45. Despite the recent shift to competing technologies, the CRT Products market remains enormous. In 2006, the retail value of the United States cathode-ray tube TV market alone still stood at approximately $3.62 billion – with cathode-ray tube TVs still accounting for nearly 15% of all TVs sold.

46. During the Class Period, while demand for CRT Products continued to fall in the United States, Defendants' conspiracy was effective in moderating the normal downward pressures on prices for CRT Products caused by the entry of the new generation of competing technologies. Indeed, during the Class Period, there were not only periods of unnatural and sustained price stability, but were also inexplicable increases in the prices of cathode-ray tubes, despite declining demand due to approaching obsolescence of cathode-ray tubes caused by the emergence of a new, superior, substitutable technology.

47. These periods of price stability and price increases for cathode-ray tubes are fundamentally inconsistent with a competitive market for a product where demand is rapidly decreasing because of the introduction of new superior technologies.

48. In 2004, cathode-ray tube TVs still accounted for 75 percent of televisions sold in the United States.

49. The market for the manufacture and sale of CRT Products is conducive to the type of collusive activity alleged herein. Throughout the class period, Defendants collectively controlled a massive share of the market for CRT Products, both globally and in the United States. Specifically, the world's five largest CRT Product manufacturers control 86% of the CRT Product market. Samsung SDI and LP Displays maintain the top two positions in the global cathode-ray tube TV market, accounting for 42% of all sales in 2000, 43% of all sales in 2001, over 50% of all sales in 2002, 55% of all sales in 2003 and 57% of all sales in 2004, with their combined market share having been anticipated to surpass 60% of all sales in 2005.

50. In 2006, Samsung SDI carved out 29% of the global cathode-ray tube TV market, followed by LP Displays at 28%, Chunghwa Picture Tubes Ltd. at 12%, Thompson at 9% and Matsushita at 8%.

51. Samsung SDI and LP Displays have recently agreed to strengthen their cooperation from the development stage through unification of several standards and share of components, especially in the slim cathode-ray TV business unit, and are currently promoting this unprecedented partnership. An industry insider has opined that these two CRT Product manufacturers are "likely to expand their 'pie' further as TV vendors who fail to adapt to the changing cathode-ray tube TV business will accelerate their restructuring."

52. In 2005, Samsung SDI and LP Displays entered into an agreement to share parts with respect to CRT Products in an effort to boost their combined market share.

53. In 2002, Matsushita and TCL formed a "collaborative relationship" in the consumer electronics business. The stated purpose of the collaboration to "achiev[e] mutually beneficial effects" by supply of cathode-ray tubes to TCL from Matsushita, sales of Matsushita's products through TCL's sales channels in China, collaboration in the supply of products, including televisions, through OEM (original equipment manufacturing )and ODM (original design manufacturing) and collaboration on research and development.

54. Furthermore, according to a June 10, 2004 media account, Samsung SDI, LP Displays and Chunghwa Picture Tubes were said to have planned a 6-8% price hike for cathode-ray tube monitors in 2Q 2004. The media, on April 22, 2004, also reported other concerted price increases by Samsung SDI, LP Displays, and Chunghwa Picture Tubes.

55. The oligopolistic structure of the CRT Product market contributes to a scheme under which the five major producers are effectively able to dictate capacity, and thus pricing. The high barriers to entry into the Product market precludes as a practical matter the entry of any other market participants.

56. Additional pricing control in the CRT Products market results from the vertically-integrated nature of the CRT Products industry. Vendors of CRT Products produce cathode-ray tubes primarily for utilization in products carrying their own branded CRT Products.

57. On November 13, 2007, Chunghwa Picture Tubes announced that the company has received a summons from the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) over a cathode-ray tube price-fixing issue, according to a company filing with the Taiwan Stock Exchange (TSE).

58. Competition authorities in other nations have also engaged in coordinated actions, including raids, targeting the unlawful CRT Products conspiracy alleged herein.

59. On November 9, 2007, Bloomberg.com reported that Japanese and European antitrust authorities carried out raids at Matsushita Electrical Industrial Co. and Toshiba Corp. MarketWatch.com, also on November 9, 2007, reported that European and South Korean antitrust authorities had searched the offices of Samsung SDI.

60. On November 21, 2007, Bloomberg.com reported that antitrust authorities for several jurisdictions were investigating Philips for price-fixing in the cathode-ray tube market.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

61. Plaintiff brings this action as a class action under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a), (b)(2) and (b)(3) on behalf of itself and all members of the following Class:

All persons (excluding Defendants, their parents, predecessors, subsidiaries, affiliates, and Co-Conspirators, and government entities) who purchased CRT Products directly from any of the Defendants, their affiliates or their Co-Conspirators in the United States from January 1, 1998 to the present.

62. Plaintiff does not know the exact number of Class members. Such information presently is in the exclusive control of Defendants and their Co-Conspirators. Given the trade and commerce involved, Plaintiff believes Class members number at least in the hundreds or thousands and are sufficiently numerous and geographically dispersed throughout the United States so that joinder of all Class members is impracticable.

63. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class, because Plaintiff and all Class members were damaged by the same wrongful conduct of Defendants and their Co-Conspirators as alleged in this Complaint.

64. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class. The interests of Plaintiff coincide with, and are not antagonistic to, those of the Class. In addition, Plaintiff is represented by counsel who are experienced and competent in the prosecution of complex class action and antitrust litigation.

65. There are questions of law or fact common to the Class, including:

- a. Whether Defendants and their Co-Conspirators engaged in a combination or conspiracy to raise, fix or maintain prices of CRT Products sold in the United States and worldwide;
- b. Whether Defendants and their Co-Conspirators engaged in a combination or conspiracy to allocate among themselves the markets and customers of CRT Products in the United States and worldwide;
- c. The duration and extent of the combination or conspiracy alleged in this Complaint, and the identity of the participants in the conspiracy;
- d. Whether each of the Defendants participated in the combination or conspiracy alleged in this Complaint;
- e. Whether the alleged combination or conspiracy had an impact on Plaintiff and other Class members;
- f. Whether Plaintiff and other members of the Class are entitled to declaratory or injunctive relief; and
- g. The appropriate measure of damages by which the conduct of Defendants and their Co-Conspirators injured all members of the Class.

These and other questions of law and fact common to members of the Class predominate over any questions that may affect only individual members.

66. Class treatment is superior to any alternatives for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy alleged in this Complaint. Class treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without the duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would engender. There are no difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of this Class action that would preclude its maintenance as a Class action, and no superior alternative exists for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy.

67. Moreover, Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Class as a whole.

68. Important characteristics of the CRT Product market facilitate anticompetitive collusion among Defendants and their Co-Conspirators and promote the successful effects of that collusion, which is the inflation of price above competitive levels. Those characteristics include the following facts:

- a. CRT Products are an undifferentiated commodity product;
- b. The market for CRT Products is highly concentrated, with Defendants controlling nearly all CRT Product sales;
- c. There are high barriers to entry to this market due to the capital-intensive nature of the business and the complex processes involved in the manufacture of CRT Products; and

- d. Because of their high collective market shares, Defendants collectively are able to exercise market power, including the ability to raise prices and erect barriers to entry to the market.

VIOLATIONS ALLEGED

69. Beginning at least as early as January 1, 1998 and continuing thereafter to the present, Defendants and their Co-Conspirators engaged in a continuing combination and conspiracy with respect to the sale of CRT Products in unreasonable restraint of interstate trade and commerce, in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1 and Sections 4 and 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 15 and 26.

70. The combination and conspiracy alleged in this Complaint consisted of a continuing agreement, understanding and concert of action by Defendants and their Co-Conspirators, the substantial terms of which were to raise, fix or maintain at artificially high and non-competitive levels the prices at which they sold CRT Products in the United States and worldwide. Defendants and their Co-Conspirators also agreed to allocate among themselves the volume of sales of CRT Products, and allocate the market and customers of CRT Products in the United States and worldwide.

71. For the purpose of forming and effectuating their combination and conspiracy, Defendants and their Co-Conspirators have done those things that they combined and conspired to do, including, among other things:

- a. Met and otherwise communicated to discuss the prices and volume of CRT Products sold in the United States and worldwide;
- b. Agreed, during meetings or communications or elsewhere, to charge prices at certain levels and otherwise to increase and maintain prices of and avoid competition in the market for CRT Products sold in the United States and worldwide;

- c. Agreed, during meetings or communications or elsewhere, to allocate among themselves markets and customers of CRT Products in the United States and worldwide;
- d. Monitored the allocated sales and policed the compliance of their Co-Conspirators through developing and enforcing an agreement to financially penalize any Co-Conspirator that sold more than their allocated share;
- e. Issued price announcements and price quotations in accordance with the agreements reached;
- f. Entered into joint ventures and license agreements to help facilitate the combination and conspiracy to fix or raise CRT Product prices or allocate the CRT Products market;
- g. Acted contrary to Defendants' unilateral interests in an effort to facilitate the combination and conspiracy to fix or raise CRT Product prices or allocate the CRT market; and
- h. Agreed to conceal and keep secret their illegal agreement.

EFFECTS

72. Defendants' combination and conspiracy has had, and will continue to have, the following effects:

- a. Prices for CRT Products sold by Defendants and their Co-Conspirators were artificially fixed, raised, stabilized, and maintained at artificially high and non-competitive levels;
- b. Plaintiff and the other members of the Class were deprived of the benefits of free and open competition in the purchase of CRT Products; and
- c. Price competition in the sale of CRT Products was restrained, suppressed and eliminated.

73. As a proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and the other members of the Class purchased CRT Products at higher prices than they would have paid but for Defendants' anti-competitive conduct, have been injured in their business or property and have suffered damages in an amount presently undetermined. The violations by Defendants are continuing and, unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined, will continue.

FRAUDULENT CONCEALMENT

74. Throughout the Class Period set forth in this Complaint, Defendants and their Co-Conspirators effectively, affirmatively, and fraudulently concealed their unlawful combination and conspiracy from Plaintiff and the Class members.

75. Defendants and their Co-Conspirators engaged in a successful, illegal price-fixing conspiracy that by its nature was inherently self-concealing.

76. Defendants' wrongful conduct as alleged in this Complaint was carried out in part through means and methods which were designed and intended to avoid detection, and which, in fact, successfully precluded detection.

77. The ability of Defendants to meet and otherwise communicate with each other under the publicly legitimate aegis of such trade organizations, and their practice of doing so, created and facilitated additional opportunities for Defendants to meet and discuss collusive conduct in the CRT Products market.

78. Plaintiff exercised all due diligence during the Class Period including, among other ways, by promptly investigating the facts giving rise to the claims asserted herein upon having a reasonable suspicion of the existence of Defendants' conspiracy alleged herein, and by seeking discovery as to the matters asserted herein, to the extent permitted by law. However, notwithstanding such diligence, Plaintiff and the members of the Class could not possibly have discovered Defendants' unlawful scheme and conspiracy until shortly before the filing of this Complaint because of the successful deceptive practices and techniques of secrecy employed by Defendants and their Co-Conspirators to avoid detection of, and to affirmatively and fraudulently conceal, their wrongful conduct. Because Defendants' affirmative and fraudulent concealment as alleged herein was effective, there were no circumstances that should have led Plaintiff to suspect the existence of Defendants' illegal price-fixing scheme.

79. By virtue of the fraudulent concealment of their wrongful conduct by Defendants and their Co-Conspirators, the running of any statute of limitations has been tolled and suspended with respect to any claims and rights of action that Plaintiff and the other Class members have as a result of the unlawful combination and conspiracy alleged in this Complaint.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that:

1. The Court determine that this action may be maintained as a class action under Rule Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and (b)(2), and (b)(3), that Plaintiff is an adequate and appropriate representative of the Class, and that reasonable notice of this action be given to the Class;

2. The unlawful combination and conspiracy alleged in this Complaint be adjudged and decreed to be in unreasonable restraint of trade or commerce in violation of

Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and Sections 4 and 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 15 and 26;

3. Defendants be preliminarily and permanently enjoined from continuing the unlawful combination or conspiracy alleged in this Complaint;

4. Plaintiff and the Class recover damages, as provided by law; that Defendants jointly and severally be held liable for the damages suffered by Plaintiff and the Class; and judgment in favor of Plaintiff and the Class be entered against Defendants in an amount to be trebled in accordance with the antitrust laws;

5. Plaintiff and the Class recover their costs of suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees, as provided by law; and

6. Plaintiff and the Class be granted such other and further relief as the nature of the case may require or as may seem just and proper to this Court.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38, Plaintiff demands a trial by jury of all issues so triable.

Re: Radio & TV Equipment, Inc. v. Chungwa Picture Tubes Ltd., et. al., 08 – cv- 542

Dear Judge Arleo:

We represent defendant Hitachi America, Ltd. Per my conversation with your chambers this morning, Hitachi respectfully requests an extension of its time to answer the complaint pending possible consolidation of this case into a multi-district litigation. Hitachi's answer is currently due on March 3, 2008. It has not previously sought an extension. Plaintiffs consented to an extension in a stipulation and proposed order attached as Exhibit A.

This case is one of over thirty that have been filed in various U.S. federal district courts seeking certification of a national class that purchased CRT (Cathode Ray Tube) products. The actions allege antitrust violations by CRT manufacturers.

On February 15, 2008, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation consolidated cases from the Northern District of California and the Southern District of New York. A copy of this order is attached as Exhibit B. The MDL order identified three cases from the District of New Jersey as potential tag along actions.

This case and one other CRT case, OK TV & Appliances, LLC v. Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., et al., 08-cv-00086 (D.NJ 2008), are before your Honor. On January 18, 2008, your Honor approved a Stipulation for an Extension of Time in OK TV that permits those defendants to respond to the complaint either 45 days after a Consolidated Amended Complaint is filed or 45 days after plaintiff provides written notice that such a complaint will not be filed.

The Hon. Madeline Cox Arleo
February 26, 2008

Hitachi respectfully requests the same extension through the attached Stipulation and Proposed Order Re Extension of Time For Defendant To Answer, Move Or Otherwise Respond To Plaintiffs' Complaint.

If the proposed order meets with your Honor's approval, please sign and enter the same. Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,

Daniel E. Orr

3 WHEREAS, Plaintiff alleges antitrust violations by manufacturers of Cathode-Ray Tubes
4 and products containing Cathode-Ray Tubes (collectively, "CRT Products");

5 WHEREAS at least thirty-two complaints have been filed to date in federal district courts

23 an earlier response date in any CRT Case, HAL will respond to the Complaint in the above-
24 captioned action on that earlier date;

25 WHEREAS Plaintiff further agrees that this extension is available, without further
26 stipulation with counsel for Plaintiff, to all named defendants who notify Plaintiff in writing of 27 their intention to join this Stipulation;

TRANSFER ORDER

Before the entire Panel: Plaintiff in the Northern District of California action has moved, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407, for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings of this litigation in the Northern District of California. All responding parties agree that centralization is appropriate and variously support one or more of the following suggested transferee districts: the Northern District of California, the District of Minnesota, the District of New Jersey, the Southern District of New York, and the District of South Carolina.

This litigation currently consists of two actions pending in two districts, one action each in the Northern District of California and the Southern District of New York.<sup>1</sup>

On the basis of the papers filed and hearing session held, we find that these actions involve common questions of fact, and that centralization under Section 1407 in the Northern District of California will serve the convenience of the parties and witnesses and promote the just and efficient conduct of this litigation. These actions share factual questions relating to allegations that defendants—manufacturers of cathode ray tubes (CRTs) and products containing CRTs—conspired to fix prices of CRT products in violation of the Sherman Antitrust Act. Centralization under Section 1407 will eliminate duplicative discovery; prevent inconsistent pretrial rulings, especially with respect to class certification; and conserve the resources of the parties, their counsel and the judiciary.

We are persuaded that the Northern District of California is an appropriate transferee forum for this litigation. One of the two actions before us and twelve potential tag-along actions are already pending in that district, and some defendants and some plaintiffs support centralization there.

<sup>1</sup> The Panel has been notified that 26 other related actions have been filed as follows: twelve actions in the Northern District of California; three actions each in the District of New Jersey and the Southern District of New York; two actions in the District of Minnesota; and one action each in the District of Arizona, the Western District of Arkansas, the Northern District of Ohio, the District of South Carolina, the Eastern District of Tennessee, and the District of Vermont. These actions will be treated as potential tag-along actions. See Rules 7.4 and 7.5, R.P.J.P.M.L., 199 F.R.D. 425, 435-36 (2001).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407, the action pending in the Southern District of New York is transferred to the Northern District of California and, with the consent of that court, assigned to the Honorable Samuel Conti for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings with the action pending there.

Re: Radio & TV Equipment, Inc. v. Chungwa Picture Tubes Ltd., et. al., 08 – cv- 542

Dear Judge Arleo:

As your Honor knows, we represent Defendant Hitachi America, Ltd.

On February 22, 2008, Plaintiff and Defendant entered into a Stipulation and Proposed Order Re Extension of Time For Defendant To Answer, Move Or Otherwise Respond To Plaintiffs' Complaint.

In that document, the parties asked the court to delay the Defendants' answer date pending potential consolidation of this case into a multi-district litigation. This stipulation and proposed order was substantially similar, if not identical, to that approved by the court a few weeks ago in OK TV & Appliances, LLC v. Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., et al., 08-cv-00086 (D.NJ 2008).

After speaking with your chambers, on February 26, 2008, we filed an informal application for an extension of Defendant's time to answer based on the stipulation.

While the court is considering that application, Defendants respectfully request that the court and clerk accept the attached clerk's order under L. Civ. R. 6.1(b) extending their time to answer by 15 days, from March 3, 2008 to March, 18, 2008.

Respectfully,

Daniel E. Orr

COMPLAINT

1 WHEREAS, Plaintiff Radio & TV Equipment, Inc., ("Plaintiff") filed a complaint in the 2 above-captioned case on or about January 28, 2008;

3 WHEREAS, Plaintiff alleges antitrust violations by manufacturers of Cathode-Ray Tubes
4 and products containing Cathode-Ray Tubes (collectively, "CRT Products");

5 WHEREAS at least thirty-two complaints have been filed to date in federal district courts
6 throughout the United States by plaintiffs purporting to bring class actions on behalf of direct and

9 WHEREAS, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation has issued an order to transfer

13 WHEREAS the parties anticipate the filing of Consolidated Amended Complaints in the 14 CRT Cases;

15 WHEREAS Plaintiff and Defendant Hitachi America, Ltd. ("HAL") have agreed that an 16 orderly schedule for any response to the pleadings in the CRT Cases would be more efficient for

18 WHEREAS Plaintiff agrees that the deadline for HAL to answer, move, or otherwise
19 respond to the Complaint shall be extended until the earliest of the following dates: (1) forty-five

22 Consolidated Amended Complaint, provided however, that in the event that HAL should agree to
23 an earlier response date in any CRT Case, HAL will respond to the Complaint in the above-
24 captioned action on that earlier date;

25 WHEREAS Plaintiff further agrees that this extension is available, without further
26 stipulation with counsel for Plaintiff, to all named defendants who notify Plaintiff in writing of
27 their intention to join this Stipulation;

28 WHEREAS this Stipulation does not constitute a waiver by HAL of any defense, including but not limited to the defenses of lack of personal jurisdiction, subject matter jurisdiction, improper venue, sufficiency of process or service of process;

WHEREAS, with respect to any named defendant joining the stipulation, this Stipulation does not constitute a waiver of any defense, including but not limited to the defenses of lack of personal jurisdiction, subject matter jurisdiction, improper venue, sufficiency of process or service of process.

PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT HAL, BY AND THROUGH THEIR RESPECTIVE COUNSEL OF RECORD, HEREBY STIPULATE AS FOLLOWS:

MDL No. 1917

CONDITIONAL TRANSFER ORDER (CTO-2)

On February 15, 2008, the Panel transferred one civil action to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407. See 536 F.Supp.2d 1364 (J.P.M.L. 2008). Since that time, 14 additional actions have been transferred to the Northern District of California. With the consent of that court, all such actions have been assigned to the Honorable Samuel Conti.

It appears that the action on this conditional transfer order involves questions of fact that are common to the actions previously transferred to the Northern District of California and assigned to Judge Conti.

Pursuant to Rule 7.4 of the Rules of Procedure of the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation, 199 F.R.D. 425, 435-36 (2001), this action is transferred under 28 U.S.C. § 1407 to the Northern District of California for the reasons stated in the order of February 15, 2008, and, with the consent of that court, assigned to the Honorable Samuel Conti.

This order does not become effective until it is filed in the Office of the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California. The transmittal of this order to said Clerk shall be stayed 15 days from the entry thereof. If any party files a notice of opposition with the Clerk of the Panel within this 15-day period, the stay will be continued until further order of the Panel.
